

Scout Saturdays

At the Hiller Aviation Museum

Saturday, November 12th, 2011
Saturday, January 14th, 2012

Free Admission to All Scouts in Uniform!

Visit the Hiller Aviation Museum in San Carlos and tour its amazing collection of over forty different historic aircraft. Observe aircraft operations up close at busy San Carlos Airport, try out a flight simulation and find out more about programs for Boy and Girl Scouts of all ages held at the Hiller Aviation Museum throughout the year.

Scouting in Aviation Lt. Col. (Retired) William Wardwell 11:00 AM

Join Lt. Col. Bill Wardwell, Eagle Scout from Troop 30 of Muncie, Indiana and retired USAF pilot, to hear him speak about how his experiences as a Boy Scout shaped his career as a professional aviator flying T-38 and C-141 aircraft.

A Girl With Wings Experimental Aircraft Builder Gail Turner Bauer 11:45 AM

The Hiller Aviation Museum is in San Carlos, conveniently located off the Holly Street/Redwood Shores Parkway exit from the 101 Freeway midway between San Francisco and San Jose. Abundant free parking is available. Boy and Girl Scouts of all ages and their adult leaders in uniform will be admitted at no charge during regular Museum hours of 10 AM—5 PM. Friends and family are welcome to accompany uniformed Scouts but must pay regular admission.

Girl Scout Gail Turner Bauer grew up raising horses and learned that she could do anything if she put her mind to it—even building airplanes! Hear about her experiences and see her Marquart Charger biplane.
